

BE THE ONE

in Utah's Fight Against Human Trafficking

"Don't stay quiet.

Reach out, speak

out about any kind of mistreatment

or abuse."

—Victor, Survivor Advocate, Faces of Human Trafficking Series

BE THE ONE to Learn about help available in your area.

If you are being forced to work or engage in commercial sex, there are safe housing, health, immigration, food, employment, legal, and interpretation services available to trafficking victims in Utah.

For more information, visit antitrafficking.aau-slc.org.

To learn about your rights and get help, contact the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 888-373-7888; Text "BEFREE" to 233733; Live Chat at humantraffickinghotline.org.