in Utah's Fight Against Human Trafficking

"It was people saying that 'I see you and I care' - that was the thing, I think, that turned things around for me most."

BE THE ONE to Support human trafficking victims.

You don't need to specialize in human trafficking to support its many victims. By knowing what human trafficking is, looking for indicators in people within your sphere of influence, and referring potential victims to appropriate services, you can play an important role in identifying and supporting victims in Utah.

Visit antitrafficking.aau-slc.org for more information on ways you can help.

If you are a victim of forced labor or commercial sex or concerned that someone may be, contact the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 888-373-7888; Text "BEFREE" to 233733; or Live Chat at humantraffickinghotline.org.
